GOSPORT
STUBBINGTON
LEE-ON-THE-SOLENT
HILL HEAD

Dear resident,

When I was elected in 2010, I promised that I would deliver action, not words for this area. That's exactly what I've done, serving not only as our area's MP, but its champion, securing our fair share of investment through hard economic times.

I know there is more to do; I want to see swift progress on the road improvement schemes I have worked hard to secure the funding for (particularly the Stubbington Bypass), further growth at the Daedalus Enterprise Zone and better provision of local healthcare services.

Having lived locally all my life, I care passionately about this area and am determined to see it fulfil its enormous potential.

I hope you will support me on June 8th.

Caroline

Transforming Daedalus...

Caroline formed the Daedalus Strategy Group which masterminded the renaissance of the former military airfield. Seven years on, the 'Solent Enterprise Zone' site has attracted more than £70m investment. CEMAST college has over 900 engineering students, the Business Innovation Centre is full with another due to open next year, and new aviation hangars open this autumn. The site is growing new businesses, creating 100s of jobs and boosting the local economy.

Caroline says; 'I'm really proud of our achievements at Daedalus so far and I will keep pushing for jobs, skills and investment at the site and challenging developments like IFA2 which may threaten its future.'

Fighting for improved transport links...

Tackling local road congestion has been Caroline's key priority since 2010. She has helped secure over £85 million to improve access roads to Fareham & Gosport, including upgrades to Newgate Lane, Peel Common Roundabout and routes to the M27, as well as £34 million for the long awaited Stubbington Bypass. Work will begin in 2018 on this new peninsula access road, which will ease the pressure on the A32.

Caroline also led a debate in Parliament calling for improved rail links to the South Coast, saying; 'After decades of under-investment in our local transport infrastructure we are beginning to see improvements. Better connectivity will drive local jobs and prosperity, so I will continue to fight for progress.'

Campaigning on military issues...

With Arctic Convoy Veteran, the late Eddie Grenfell

Caroline was the driving force behind the campaign which secured a dedicated medal for the brave Arctic Convoy veterans of WW2.

Having successfully fought a plan to move HMS Sultan to South Wales in 2010, Caroline has now formed a task force to plot the best possible future for both HMS Sultan and Fort Blockhouse in light of recent MoD proposals for disposal of the sites. She says; 'While, properly managed, the sale of Fort Blockhouse has potential to create jobs and investment, I firmly believe that it would be to the great detriment of both Gosport and the Royal Navy to lose the outstanding training at Sultan, so will be fighting it every inch of the way!'

Helping local business...

As a former small business owner Caroline understands that they represent the life-blood of our local economy. She created 'Bridging the Gap', the fund which has boosted local business by over £2 million.

Caroline also formed the Gosport Marine Scene Group which promotes our area as a world class marine and sailing hub and has organised and hosted Enterprise Fairs for new and aspiring business owners.

Supporting education and training ...

As well as playing an important role in winning £15 million additional funding for our schools, Caroline helped secure new community sports facilities at Bridgemary and Bay House. She has visited every school in the constituency and her work to save outreach education in Rowner from closure has seen the 'Out-There' project go from strength to strength, with over 1000 adult learners per year.

CAROLINE DINENAGE: A Strong Voice for Gosport Conservatives

Backing our armed forces and their families.....

Caroline was responsible for getting the Home to Duty travel allowance reinstated for service personnel commuting on the Gosport Ferry, saving money and taking cars off the road.

She helped secure a full life pension for war widows and fought for improvements in Service Family Accommodation, seeing Gosport chosen as a pilot site for an SFA complaints hotline. She actively supports local veterans' organisations across the community.

Supporting jobs and skills

Caroline's 'Get in, Go Far' campaign was a showcase for local opportunities in apprenticeships. Since 2010 Gosport has seen the highest number of apprentices in Hampshire and unemployment has fallen by nearly 60%!

She hosted a 'Disability Confident' event with local employers to break down barriers that prevent disabled jobseekers finding work.

Backing the PM on Brexit...

Gosport and Fareham both voted overwhelmingly to leave the EU and Caroline has vowed to represent their voices in Parliament.

She voted to trigger Article 50 and is backing Theresa May's strong, stable leadership, to ensure that our country gets the best possible deal from Brexit. She says; 'All the other parties have said that they would do a deal to make Jeremy Corbyn Prime Minister. That means a vote for any party other than Conservatives will put our Brexit negotiations, and our country's future at risk.'

A bit about Caroline...

The daughter of a television journalist and a businesswoman, Caroline is married to Mark and lives in Gosport with her two sons, Edward and Freddie, and three fish. She is passionate about the local area and loves living by the sea!

Before being elected to Parliament in 2010 Caroline ran a small manufacturing company and has used her business experience to help support economic growth in the Gosport constituency.

A keen supporter of local charities Caroline has taken part in many dare-devil fundraising activities, including sky-diving and abseiling the Spinnaker Tower!
